REPORT

A tight 10 run win away at Luton Town & the Indians to keep Hemel IV at the top of Div 9A at the halfway stage of the league season, 3 points ahead of 2nd placed Bamville. Who not only are the only team to have beaten Hemel in the league this season in the opening game but are also the opponents next week as the 2nd half starts. Could be the deciding game for the top spot. A somewhat weaker than normal Hemel side batted first and were dismissed for 143. Wicketkeeper Andy Turbutt batted up the order at 3 and made 46, skipper Graham Clark made 20 at no.6 and opener Steve Smith made 18. Not the largest of totals to defend but Hemel IV are made of stern stuff. Luton skipper Viren Patel looked as if he might take it with his 44 but Cameron Hutcheon snaffled him caught by Max Clark and then U-13 star Finley Clark removed the Luton tail to nab 3 - 25 and give Hemel IV the win.
